HIKING SAFETY

It's very important to practice safe hiking in Arizona! More than 200 hikers are rescued every year in Phoenix alone. To keep you and your group safe, and emergency responders where they're needed most, please read the following safety tips from Arizona State Parks & Trails.

COVID-19

- Make sure you keep six feet of distance between you and other hikers, and announce your presence when you approach.
- Step off the trail for a moment to let someone pass if necessary.
- If you're feeling unwell, stay home! It's not worth the risk.
- Stay close to the resort when you do go out, and make sure you pick a trail that isn't too crowded.
- Wash your hands before you go, carry hand sanitizer, and check park restrictions at www.azstateparks.com/coronavirus.

Be Prepared

- Check the weather and dress appropriately!
- Arizona's dry heat can sneak up on you, so wear a hat, sunscreen, and appropriate clothing (light-colored, moisture-wicking and breathable is best!).
- Check the weather, and hike in the early morning or late evening when the sun doesn't blaze quite as hot.
- Check the trail conditions so you know what you're getting into before you go.

Hike with Friends

- Hiking is better with a group! Besides having company, friends can help check up on each other, make informed decisions, and call for help if needed.
- If you do decide to hike solo, carry a cell phone and let someone know where you're going and how long you plan to be gone.

Bring Water

- Drink plenty of water during your hike, and make sure you have more than enough.
- Even if the weather is cooler, you need to stay hydrated during your hike.
- You should drink half a liter to a full liter or more every hour, depending on the weather and level of exercise.
- Snacks help too!
- Turn back before you get halfway through your water supply.
- Please make sure you don't hike beyond your ability. Know yourself and pay attention to what your body is telling you!

Pet Safety

- It can be dangerous for pets to spend excessive time outdoors in higher temperatures, so make sure you understand your pet's abilities and pay attention to their behavior.
- Pets heat up and cool off differently than humans, so don't base their health level on how you're feeling.
- Heatstroke can be life-threatening for pets and they need plenty of water and shade to stay cool.
- For signs and treatment of heatstrokes, check out the Humane Society's guide to keeping pets safe in the heat (www.humanesociety.org/resources/keep-pets-safe-heat).
